ington to visit for a few days.

city on Wednesday. The funeral passed through the city this morning to Stand's church.

ton, who have been visiting their brother F. H. Myers, in Cherry street, returned home to-day.

Cards are out for a company to be all the rest arrived in town to-day. He noon, to sell the Ricker farm near this city, appraised at $3,350, to satisfy a claim of the Kendal Charity school.

Subscribers to the stock of the new ing in the mayor's court room. The necessary preliminary steps to organization will be taken.

maugh, Pa., will deliver his popular lecture, "The Johnson Flood" in Music Hall, this city, Tuesday evening, March 24. The lecturer has been secured by the people of the U. B. church.

City Engineer D. A. Miller was asked to-day as to the cause of the smell complained of from the East Main street sewer. He replied that the matter was wholly out of his hands, and that he knew nothing whatever of the smell or the reason for it.

George Butts, master car builder of the C., L. & W. road, was in the city over night. Mr. Butts lives in Elyria, and is the possessor of a medal of honor, awarded him by the government for distinguished war services, not another of the same kind being worn in Ohio.

Mr. P. G. Albright arrived home, overland, from Navarre last night, only a trifle the worse in body, for participation in the wreck yesterday afternoon. Somebody started the story that the experience had caused him to renounce his anti-canal sentiments, in favor of views friendly to the non-explosive mule, and the certain-to-get-there tow boat.

Mr. Nathan Lee, of Alliance, and Miss Ella Forst, of this city, were quietly married at the residence of the bride's parents in West Main street at 7 o'clock last evening. None but members of the family and a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs.
Lee will leave to-morrow for Chicago and family of John A. Jones, returned home Friday evening... Mrs. Focke, of Massillon, spent two or three days last week with her brother, A. W. Brown, in this city.—New Philadelphia Democrat.

Mrs. A. Keller successfully engineered a surprise party, last night, of unusual proportions, the surprised individual being her husband. Some accounts say 150 and some say 200 guests arrived at the Keller residence in Muskingum street, and in a short time adjourned to Music Hall, which was in readiness for the party. Schworm's orchestra was on hand, and with dancing, cards and the reigning favorite, tiddledy winks, the evening fairly flew by. A fine luncheon was spread at 12 o'clock. The out of town people present were Miss Louisa Von Kanel, of Canton, Mr. Krebs, of Pittsburg, Miss Alla Kniesly, of New Philadelphia and Miss Bomberger, of Canton.

THEY WANT AN ACCOUNT.

The Ex-Clerk of Courts Has Failed to File Proper Reports.
CANTON, March 13.—The county commissioners have asked ex-Clerk of Courts John McGregor to render an account of the business done by him during his term of office. During his time of holding the position of county clerk, the commissioners say, he never filed an account and the law requires a settlement each year. The commissioners want the matter settled.

At the Richeimer home, No. 57 South Walnut street, Wednesday evening, the marriage of Mr. J. A. Heinzgartner to Mrs. Ella J. Richeimer took place. A large company was present to do honor to the occasion and to extend congratulations to the couple.

Stockholders deny the reported sale of the Canton street railway to F. A.
Wilcox, of Akron. Among other rumors that have been going around town was one that Johnson, the extensive owner of street railway lines, who has a line running between New Philadelphia and Canal Dover, is trying to obtain control of the Canton and Lakeside lines. This report has not been confirmed.

HOW THE MESSAGES GO:
Manager Franklin Pierce Drake will tell
THE INDEPENDENT readers to-morrow how the Western Union matter in Massillon is handled.

The Navarre Wreck.

The second chapter of the W. & L. E.
wreck at Navarre yesterday is necessarily a brief one. The disabled coaches were removed without much difficulty and the track was cleared within a few hours. The property damage will not be very great. Mr. William McLean, the postal clerk, who received the terrible wound in his side and it was believed would certainly die from his injuries,
passed a comfortable night, and to-day
Dr. Ridenour says he has excellent chances of ultimate recovery, the injuries other than the wound being trifling.
The home of Mr. McLean is in the village of Augusta, Carroll county.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon, Mr. Mc-Lean was alive, but suffering and flighty in mind. He is a single man. In his rational moments he explained that he did not jump from the car, but was thrown out by the car coming to a sudden stop.

TAKING THE TESTIMONY.

THE CORONER NOW AT WORK ON THE ALBERT DAVIS CASE.

Was Death Caused by Quackery?—Dr.
Eberwein on the Stand—Examination of George W. Phillips and Others—The Verdict Withheld.

Coroner Openheimer came over from Canton this afternoon and inaugurated a legal and thorough investigation to ascertain, if possible, the cause of the death of Albert Davis, the 16 year old son of Thomas L. Davis, a miner living at Sippo. So much has been said in reference to the case that the announcement of the fact that testimony would be taken this afternoon was sufficient to attract more people to the mayor's office than the restricted limits of the room could accommodate. The witnesses, after being sworn, were severally examined, the main features of the testimony
being as follows:

THE FATHER'S TESTIMONY.

Thomas L. Davis, father of the boy—
Gave baths according to directions,
keeping him in about fifteen minutes,
and he would then rest for about two hours. Gave another bath Sunday; kept him in that time three minutes; the temperature of the water was so that my wife could hold her elbow in it for some time; had a similar effect as before.
When the effect of the baths would wear off he was the same as before. His mother gave him another bath on Monday, and he never spoke after being taken out. The boy objected to the last bath, exclaiming "Pull me out." Was in the bath twenty-three minutes the last time. Medicine didn't seem to do him any good, but the bath quieted him.
Had no attack before the bath was given.
The first attack of St. Vitus's dance was a week ago last Tuesday.

WHAT THE MOTHER SAYS.

Mrs. T. L. Davis, mother of the boy.—
My son had been sick three weeks ago
last Wednesday. Complained of rheumatism and a cough. Dr. Gardner came Thursday and said he had rheumatism and that his left lung was affected. We gave him one medicine every four hours another every two hours, Dr. Gardner's prescriptions. He got up and seemed better after that, getting up and walking around until a week ago last Saturday, when he showed the first symptoms of St. Vitus's dance. It affected the whole body by twitching and jerking. The medicine for rheumatism seemed to do no good. Last Friday we called in Dr.
Eberwein; he felt his pulse, looked at his tongue, gave him some powders, and said he had St. Anthony's dance.

Eberwein fixed the first bath himself;
it was moderately warm. He rested several hours after the baths. Third one gave him Monday morning about 10 o'clock; he could only stand it twenty-three minutes, the orders being to keep him in an hour. After taking him out I rolled him in blankets, and he never spoke and died within a half hour. Was never conscious again. The blue medicine was given every two hours. (The coroner had the bottle but could not tell what it was.) This was given just before he went into the bath. Had the cough all winter. Never had rheumatism before this.

GEO. W. PHILLIPS ON THE STAND.

Geo. W. Phillips—Saw the boy after he was first taken sick a number of times. He seemed to move his entire body. Was there Saturday with Eberwein. Saw them put him into the barrel of hot water; helped them; kept him in from fifteen to twenty minutes; he didn't want to go into the barrel and seemed anxious to get out. He rested easy after he was taken out and put in bed. Saw the bath on Monday about 11:30 a. m. He knew what was going on when put in the bath.
He was in about 23 minutes, expected him to remain in an hour; was unconscious when taken out. Rolled him in blankets and put him in bed. He died fifteen minutes after, so I was told. He seemed to give way as soon as we took him out, he seemed to fall asleep. No body at the house objected to the treatment. He seemed to improve after the first bath.

DR. EBERWEIN IS CALLED.

Dr. Barnhart Eberwein, O. E. Young,
interpreter, spoke German. A. M. prae-ticing physician, 32 years in America, and 20 years in Germany. Graduated at Wurzburg, and practiced in the hospital at Hamburg, where at one time there were 4,000 patients. Practiced in this vicinity since 1872. Was called to Davis house at 7:30 p. m. Saw boy gesticulating and having a fit; it was of the nature of epilepsy and St. Vitus's dance.
I prescribed six or eight drops of ammoniated sulphate of copper in water every two or three hours. Told them to use three ounces of sulphate of potash in a barrel of milk warm water for a bath for the boy. Gave the bath myself on Saturday; was not there afterwards.
Kept him in twenty minutes the first time; told them to give him a bath each day. Told them to keep him in three-fourths of an hour the second time, and the third time an hour, and one hour afterward for each bath. I prescribed this treatment to quiet his nerves. Cured Billy Amos's son and three others in Massillon in same way; one was a daughter of Wm. Hose and don't know names of others except that one lived in Millport. Formula used is given in Dr.
Karl Christian Anton's work on "Medical Practice," a German work published in Leipzig in 1851, and the formula was read from the book by the coroner. The formula says twelve baths will effect a cure. Have always used this remedy for the disease. Did not examine his heart. Only felt his pulse when I first went there. It was from 150 to 160 beats.

The coroner says that the remedy applied is obsolete, being supplanted by modern science on the subject, but that Eberwein cannot be made amon-able to the law for the reason that his prescription was in accordance with what was in the books. He will not prepare a formal verdict for several days, probably.

The Independent's Telephone No. 43
FRIDAY MARCH 13 1891

This Date in History—March 13.
1677—The proprietors of New Jersey gave the people a liberal constitution, and more than 400 Quakers came from England and settled below the Raritan.
1776—English ambassador recalled from Paris.
1846—Revolution at Vienna: flight of Prince Metternich.
1858—Execution of Orsini and Pieri for attempted assassination of the emperor of France.
1862—Great artillery battle at New Madrid, Mo., in which the Federal engineers and artillerymen under Gen. John Pope demonstrated the vast superiority of the new style of siege guns and gave a new feature to the war; at night the Confederates evacuated, their retreat being concealed by a furious thunder storm.
1864—Capture of Fort Du Russay, La., by the Union forces.
1867—Cession of Russian America to United States.
1870—Marriage of Princess Louise Margaret of Prussia to Duke of Connaught at Windsor.

At last an authoritative expression from Jerry Simpson has been heard. He wears socks.

The Silver bill providing for an Eastern Ohio insane asylum has passed the senate. Will it die in the House?

The Republicans of this town will hold their primary election to-morrow. Every male citizen of Republican persuasion is expected to do his duty.

"How do you make public sentiment?" was asked of the elder Bennett. "Reiteration, reiteration, reiteration," was the laconic reply. There is an opportunity now to make sentiment in favor of electing United States senators by the people.

"Tell them to go to the devil," remarked Mr. Waterson when the last reporter to see him asked what should be said to those who wanted some further explicit expression from him. Incidentally he observed that he was not bothering himself about New York politics, "which stink in the nostrils of good people everywhere."

Well, Governor Campbell, what are you going to do with the resuscitated Cincinnati board of improvements? The decision of the Supreme court, declaring the act creating the board of affairs unconstitutional, illustrates the utter incompetency of the present assembly. The constitution forbids special municipal legislation, but this is overcome by legislation for cities of certain classes and certain grades. As Cincinnati is the only city of the first grade and first class in Ohio, any bill intended for such cities would be operative only in Cincinnati. A reference to the superior court of Cincinnati, there being but one such court in the state, invalidated the whole bill, thus nullifying the only result of the extra session of the legislature last fall.

The Independent loves the Canton Repository as a brother, but it suffers from occasional attacks of nausea, when The Repository lays hands on everything on the earth, above the earth, and under the earth in the name of Canton and its advantages—whatever they are. The Independent mentions this en passant as the French say, because The Repository construes this paper's observation that a new insane asylum in this vicinity is a recognized necessity, as meaning needed near Massillon, and adding that it guessed Canton would "be in it" too. Now The Independent's vision is a little broader than one township, and while it is honestly striving for Massillon, it is not eternally dinging-donging it into the public ear. When it said this vicinity, it meant this part of the state, and it may add that if Massillon should be chosen the state would not suffer.

It has been moved and seconded, and ought to be carried, that the people elect the next United States senator from Ohio. The proposition is that the Republicans nominate a candidate for senator at the state convention, then let the Democrats do the same, if they so desire. Let the names go upon the tickets, and let the voice of the majority guide the legislature in its act of ratification of a choice already made. This done and we would have a United States senator elected by the people, and without constitutional amendment. There is precedent for this. In Illinois Lincoln and Douglas ran for United States senator and Douglas was elected. Last year, in the same state, Palmer's name was placed upon the Democratic ticket, and the fidelity of the Democratic members of the legislature to his cause is still fresh in the minds of all. Let Ohio swing into line, and do away forever with such scandals as followed the election of Payne and Brice.

THE PRIMARIES:
The Republican primary election will take place to-morrow at Schafer & Mauss's office, in North Erie street, from 1 to 7 p.m. Bring your friends and get out a full vote.

MR. SMITH WITHDRAWS.
The name of J. E. Smith appears on the printed tickets as a candidate for council, in the first ward. Nevertheless Mr. Smith should not be voted for, as he determined to withdraw in favor of Z. T. Baltzy this afternoon. As he is no longer a candidate his name should be scratched.

Extent of the McConnell Estate.
Mr. J. M. Schuckers, one of the administrators of the estate of Eliza McConnell, deceased, of Jackson township, was spoken to this morning in reference to the extent of the estate. He said it would amount to about $70,000, and was confined to bonds, notes, mortgages and cash, the only realty she possessed being a life interest in the farm on which she died. By the conditions of the will the entire estate is to be divided between four sisters and a brother and by them will be distributed among about fifty-seven heirs. A story to the effect that a large sum of money had been found secreted in an old trunk was discovered to have originated from the fact that the deceased had about $200 stored away in a bank of that kind, but members of the household and other relatives were aware of the fact.

To the Ladies of Massillon.
To all who are interested in ceramic art, a cordial invitation is extended to call at the Hotel Conrad next Tuesday, March 17th, from 1 to 4 p.m., where Mrs. M. L. Myers will have a display of decorated china and the latest novelties. She will also have on sale a complete line of Worcester and grounding colors, and will also show you something new and useful in silk painting.

I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitude. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy and I never hoped for cure, but Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago, Ill.

PROF. JONES ON ALCOHOL.

A Profitable Lecture Under the Auspices of the "Y's."

Prof. E. A. Jones's lecture on the effects of alcohol upon the human system at the new Christian church, last night, was preceded by a short miscellaneous programme of attractive character. Miss Annie Edgar, a very promising young pianiste, played Sternberg's "Stac-cadella," Miss Nellie King recited Buchanan Read's musical rhyme "Drifting," and a quartette consisting of Messrs. Mitchell, Manly, J. E. and William Johns, gave one selection.

It was a talk rather than a lecture, illustrated by colored charts, and some simple chemical experiments. The chemist of one hundred years ago, said the speaker, asked what was alcohol, would have replied "fire and water." We of the present generation describe it as a combination of elements which enter largely into the composition of everything that exists.

Passing from an interesting description of the different kinds of alcohols, and the proportion of alcohol in the various intoxicants, Mr. Jones entered into the heart of the subject, calling attention to its effects upon the system. It had been ascertained, he said, that it was not digested as other foods and liquids, and used to build up the parts of the body, but it passed out, whether through the pores of the skin, the lungs, or the kidneys exactly as it entered—alcohol. Thus, as it did no good, and certainly did no harm, it must be classed with the poisons.

With the aid of the charts, the stomach under various conditions was shown. The delicate membrane was pictured as inflamed, in the case of a moderate drinker, and as ulcerated and diseased, in the case of an habitual drinker. Similarly action of alcohol upon other digestive organs was shown.

Intervened with the instructive story was the statement as to how in 1822, it happened that the world was made richer in the knowledge of the effect of many different foods upon the stomach. In that year, at Mackinac, a soldier sustained a gunshot wound by which his stomach was torn open and exposed to view. The army post surgeon cured the man, but in doing so the stomach did not heal, and was kept closed by means of a compress. Having daily opportunity to examine the patient, the surgeon conducted a scientific inquiry, noting closely his observations, which were given to the public in a printed volume, which has proved of much use.

Mr. Jones had not the time to more than refer to the influence of alcoholic stimulants upon the brain, stifling the reasoning powers, and exciting the passions. He closed aptly likening the drinking habit to the case of a celebrated tamer of beasts, who for twenty-five years had successfully controlled an immense serpent, yet who, after all that time, suffered an agonizing death at last, in the coils of the reptile he had mastered for so many years.

TO INCREASE THE STOCK.

A Movement for the Betterment of the W. & L. E. Equipment.

The Wheeling & Lake Erie company have given notice that a special meeting of the stockholders of the company will be held in Toledo April 15, next, to consider the question of increasing the capital stock of the company by issuing $900,000 additional preferred stock. The preferred stock is now $3,600,000. The proposed increase will raise it to $4,500,000. The new issue, says the Toledo Blade, will be taken by a syndicate and the proceeds are to be used to place upon the road some new equipment which is greatly needed. A circular issued to the stockholders states that contracts have been made for 15 new locomotives, 1,000 coal cars, 200 box cars, and 4 passenger coaches. It also stated that this amount of new equipment will increase the net earnings of the road at least $150,000 per annum.

Home Bread Good Enough.

The bakers of this town—people who live here, spend their money here, and convert home flour, made of home wheat, into home bread, and bread that is just as good and better too than any foreign bread, and quite as cheap, fail to see why their trade should be, even in a measure, cut off by competition with Cleveland bread, the product of a wealthy monopoly, and sold on commission. They desire to call the attention of the public to this condition of things, in this public way, believing that when the facts are presented, bread consumers will see the unwisdom of purchasing the bread of out of town, with no advantage to themselves, serving to send money out of town, and discourage their own bakers. The practice is one that is reprehensible from every possible point of view. Massillon bread meets every requirement of Massillon people. Dealers can purchase this home bread on terms as liberal as they can make with the Cleveland monopoly, and have nothing to gain by not doing so.

Lawfully Constituted.

In a card published yesterday, "A Friend of the Schools" inquires whether a board of education, such as has been proposed, composed in part of hold-over members of the existing board, and members to be elected this spring from the various wards, would be lawfully constituted. A gentleman who has given the matter some study replies that such a conglomerate board would undoubtedly be sustained by any competent court. The statutes are completely silent as to how boards of education are elected at large are to be superseded by boards elected from wards and in the absence of any statutory explanation, the commonsense plan suggested by the Massillon board of education would be proper. The members of the existing board were elected to serve for a definite term, and as there is no specific instruction on the point, it is natural to suppose that they must serve their time, no matter how future boards may be created.

ECHOES FROM THE SHOPS.

Note and Comment on Men and Dogs at Russell Co.'s.

Many of the boys whose homes are in South Erie street, have been coming and going by way of Richville all winter. The roads are now, however in very bad condition, and they are engaged devising ways and means to open up Erie street again, which was originally intended for a public thoroughfare. A petition is being circulated and generally subscribed to, to the amount of a nickel apiece, for a fund to be applied to the expense of cutting a way through the sidewalk in front of the residence of Mr. Henry Snyder. From all accounts it will be beneficial to the health of the community, if done before warm weather sets in.

The genial citizen, Mr. John Otto, is happy in the fact that he is plump, fair and fifty-eight to-day. His friends hope he may be able to celebrate many more anniversaries of his birthday, and that he will be as liberal with the cigars as he is this time.

It was an unusual sight to see a man dangle in mid air at the end of a rope while painting the tall stack over the foundry this week.

Mr. A. Shorb is now confined to the house and has been some days through sickness. His friends have every hope that it is not the result of the scare, consequent from his encounter with Buffalo Bill the other day.

Mr. Nathan Klotz's services were called into play last night at the Keller party with his hitherto hitherto, and furnished some entrancing music for those fortunate enough to be present. Messrs. Buttermore and Kail, with their three stringed guitar and bass drum, were left out in the cold, and feel very much slighted at this reflection upon the high order of their musical talent.

Mr. Simonsen, foreman of the foundry department, remarked yesterday that his department had been much like a hospital ward for some days, about a dozen of the boys being off duty by the persuasive influence of that meddlesome malady, the grip.

SCROFULA

Is that impurity of the blood which produces unsightly lumps or swellings in the neck; which causes running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or "humors," which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. It is the most ancient of all diseases, and very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can SCROFULA Be CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. If you suffer from scrofula, try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Every spring my wife and children have been troubled with scrofula, my little boy, three years old, being a terrible sufferer. Last spring he was one mass of sores from head to foot. We all took Hood's Sarsaparilla, and all have been cured of the scrofula. My little boy is entirely free from sores, and all four of my children look bright and healthy."

THE KILLING OF SEALS.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL ASKED FOR A CONSTRUCTION OF THE LAW.

Something About the Seal Privileges for the Islands of St. George and St. Paul and the North American Commercial Company's Lease—Secretary Foster in a Dilemma.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Secretary Foster has asked the attorney general to construe section 1963, revised statutes, as to whether the annual rent of the North American Commercial company for the seal privileges can be reduced or not. The lease of the seal privileges for the islands of St. George and St. Paul to the North American Commercial company is for the period of twenty years. The rental is fixed at $60,000 per year and the company has to pay $2 a head tax on each seal killed and $7.63 for each seal skin taken. The number of seals to be taken each year under the lease shall not be more than 100,000, but in the discretion of the secretary of the treasury a lesser number may be fixed upon and the number to be taken each year is left to his discretion. Government agents have reported that the seals are in a fair way to be exterminated, and Secretary Foster is inclined to curtail the killing to the minimum. He does not follow Agent Elliott's recommendation and prevent the taking of seals in Alaskan waters altogether for several years.

Secretary Foster, puzzled, The North American Commercial company, in view of this contingency, do not think that they should pay a heavy rental for what they do not get and have asked the secretary of the treasury if he curtails the killing of seals to reduce or remit altogether their annual rental. In this dilemma Secretary Foster has called upon the attorney general for a construction of the law in the case. Last year the number of seals killed was about 30,000, though at the beginning of the season the secretary of the treasury fixed 60,000 as the number to be killed. But as they were becoming scarce, he, in his discretion, revoked his first order.

GOVERNMENT EXHIBITS.

A Meeting of the Board of Management to Consider the Extent of its Powers.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The board of management of government exhibits held a meeting at the treasury department yesterday—the first since the approval of the sundry civil bill—to consider the law and learn from the law officers of the department the extent and limitation of its powers. A certified copy of the bill having been submitted to the comptroller, the opinion of that official was read to the board substantially to the effect that the law conferred all the powers which had been sought by the board. The available funds for the purposes of the government exhibit amount to $50,000 for the remainder of the present fiscal year and $350,000 for the next fiscal year, and the law confers in terms the power (which was questionable under the original law) to construct and purchase articles and materials for the exhibit and to employ the necessary expert assistance to perform the work of the board. It is limited by law, however, to an expenditure of $5,000 for clerical assistance. The board adjourned to meet next Wednesday.

A DECISION BY SECRETARY PROCTOR

Regarding the Act of Congress Authorizing a Retired List.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The adjutant general of the army has issued the following decision made by Secretary Proctor: "In connection with an act of congress to authorize a retired list for privates and non-commissioned officers of the United States army who have served for a period of thirty years or upward, approved Feb. 14, 1885, and under an act of congress to amend the foregoing, approved Sept. 30, 1890, it is held—First, that the War of the Rebellion began April 15, 1861. Second, that 'war service' includes service rendered as a commissioned officer. Third, that the war ended Aug. 20, 1866; but to entitle the applicant to double time for service after April 2, 1866, it must appear affirmatively that such service was rendered in the state of Texas."

BRAZILIAN PORTS OPEN.

Imports From the United States Can Now Enter That Country Free.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Brazilian newspapers have been received at the department of state containing a decree by the president of Brazil declaring the ports of that country free and open to the imports from the United States that were included in the reciprocity agreement, thus setting at rest the rumors that have been current and the assertions that have come from various quarters that the Brazilian government did not recognize the validity of the treaty.

The Connecticut Legislature.

HARTFORD, Conn., March 13.—The house is considering the Judson plan of settling the deadlock over state offices. A vote on a minor matter yesterday showed the Republicans in the minority. A motion was therefore made to take a recess until next Tuesday. The Republicans left the house in a body and the vote showed no quorum. U.

Reemelin Wins in the Supreme Court.

COLUMBUS, O., March 13.—At the special session of the legislature, last fall, the board of public improvements in Cincinnati was ousted on account of corruption, and a board of public affairs created. TEXAS CATTLE ROVERS.

Practical Cattlemen from Montana to the Gulf in Convention at Dallas.

DALLAS, TEX., March 13.—The fifth annual convention of the Northwest Cattle Growers' association has adjourned to meet at Ft. Worth on the second Tuesday of next March. There was a greater number of practical cattlemen present than has attended any similar meetings. The range cattle country all along the plain from Montana to the gulf was represented, and the report from the whole range country, with the exception of a few drought-stricken spots, was that range cattle were particularly well preserved during the past season. It is predicted that if the cold weather holds off for the rest of the season that range cattle all along the line will be better and in better condition generally than usual. An expression was obtained in favor of an appropriation for an exhibit at the world's fair.

A Case of Bad Punctuation.

NEW YORK, March 13.—The United States general appraisers gave a "grammatical" decision yesterday in which they declared there was a case of bad punctuation in the McKinley tariff act. The paragraph referred to is No. 318 and reads as follows: "Chocolate (other than chocolate confectionary and chocolate commercially known as sweetened chocolate) two cents per pound." The board held that the parenthesis should embrace "Other than chocolate confectionary" alone.

A Work for Classical Scholars.

BOSTON, March 13.—Prof. W. W. Goodwin, of the Greek department at Harvard, has just received the first copy sent to this country of the new manuscript of Aristotle, the "Thraites on the Constitution of Athens," and for classical scholars here it is proving of intense interest.

Cooley died last week it was supposed that he died penniless, but yesterday his son picked up an old coat he had been in the habit of wearing, and, hearing something rattle, ripped open the lining and discovered $9,700 in certificates of deposit and bank bills of large denominations.

A DESPERATE ENCOUNTER

BETWEEN DRUNKEN MEN IN A KENTUCKY BALL ROOM.

Six of the Participants Are Mortally Wounded and Several Others Slightly—No Attempt Made to Make Arrests—The Quarrel Arose Between Two Dancers Over a Young Lady.

CATTLETOWN, KY., March 13.—A terrible battle with fatal effect took place yesterday at Kilgore, a small mining town on the Newport News and Mississippi Valley railroad, about twenty miles west of this point, in which six men are said to have been fatally shot and several others slightly wounded.

For several days the belles and beaux of the little hamlet have been making preparations for a grand ball to be given at the public hall. To make the occasion more delightful, the young men purchased gallons of Ashland forty rod. The hour rolled round and also the jugs of red eye. The ball room was crowded with men, women and children. Early in the evening the men began drinking, and as the night wore away began to show signs of intoxication.

A Shower of Bullets.

Exactly what led to the battle no one seems to know, more than that a quarrel arose between two of the dancers over a young lady present. Suddenly a shot was fired and a panic ensued. Men, women and children rushed for the passage to the open door. The door became clogged with the jam of humanity, whose only object was to escape from the shower of bullets being fired in the hall. The first man to fall was Sherman Lucas, a miner. As soon as Lucas fell his friends rallied to his rescue and a perfect battle was the result. Between 10 and 20 men were engaged on both sides, and it is estimated that between 50 and 150 shots were fired. The fighting ceased only when ammunition was exhausted. During the fight the lights were extinguished, which fact no doubt saved many lives.

Six Lives Lost.

When the smoke of the battle cleared away six men lay on the floor fatally wounded. Several others were slightly wounded, but sufficiently strong to call in medical assistance. The fatally wounded are: Sherman Lucas, Charles Bunting, Sam Bunting, Andy Howell, Jeff Waugh and David Waugh. During the day no one had been arrested and it will be a hard matter to fix the guilt where it properly belongs. The names of those connected with the fight could not be obtained. No women or children were injured further than tight squeezes.

SAUSAGE FROM HORSE MEAT.

An English Syndicate to Manufacture the Stuff in Chicago.

CHICAGO, March 13.—"No, I do not think that any English or any other kind of a syndicate will manufacture sausages in this city for export, using horses shipped in here dead as raw material," said Health Commissioner Wickersham yesterday, referring to a published statement to that effect. "If these people wish to use healthy horses, they will be a hard matter to fix the guilt where it properly belongs. The names of those connected with the fight could not be obtained. No women or children were injured further than tight squeezes."

Proctor and Party at Chattanooga.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., March 13.—Secretary Proctor and party of visitors from Washington spent the day in traveling over the battlefields at Mission Ridge and Lookout Mountain. In the evening the visitors were the guests of the citizens of Chattanooga at a grand banquet given at the Read house to celebrate the successful manufacture of steel in this section from low grade southern iron. About 300 covers were laid and many speeches were delivered. The party from Washington have decided to leave on their homeward trip to-day. It is expected that a brief stop will be made at Knoxville.

Reciprocity Negotiations with Canada.

OTTAWA, ONT., March 13.—The government has decided to inform Secretary Blaine that they were prepared to enter into negotiations at once in the direction of reciprocity, and only waited his pleasure to fix a date when he would be willing to receive the Canadian commissioners. Sir Charles Tupper will represent Canada, while the interest of Great Britain will be looked after by Joseph Chamberlain.

Levee Gives Way and Country Flooded.

MEMPHIS, TENN., March 13.—The levee at Conley's lake, about thirty miles south of this city, gave way and the water is pouring through the crevasse at a rapid rate. The country for miles around is being inundated and the Louisville, New Orleans and Texas railroad tracks are two feet under water. Workmen have gone to the scene, and will at once begin repairing the break.

A Democratic Daily Changes Hands.

COLUMBUS, O., March 13.—Charles Q. Davis yesterday completed a deal by which The Evening Post, the only Democratic daily in the city, passed into his hands. Mr. Davis is a lieutenant of Senator Brice and the senator is reported to be the financial backer of the movement to secure the paper. The purchase gives Mr. Brice an organ in Central Ohio.

A STAY OF EXECUTION GRANTED

In the Cases of Smiler and Slocum, Who Were Sentenced to Execution.

NEW YORK, March 13.—The counsel for Harris A. Smiler and James J. Slocum presented petitions yesterday to the United States court for writs of habeas corpus with a view of saving their clients from being put to death by electricity during the week beginning March 16. Judge Lacombe denied the application for the writ, whereupon the lawyers made an appeal to the supreme court of the United States, and Judge Lacombe gave them until the 23d inst. in which to obtain a hearing. Smiler is the ex-baseball player, who killed his wife Ellen on December 31, 1889. The judgment in both cases has been affirmed by the court of appeals of the state of New York. The appeal from Judge Lacombe's action in denying the writ will operate as a stay to the execution.

A FORLORN HOPE.

A Desperate Surgical Operation Fails to Save H. Clay King's Victim's Life.

MEMPHIS, March 13.—David Posten, the lawyer who was shot by Col. H. Clay King, died Wednesday evening. The only chance of saving his life was taken at a late hour and failed. It consisted in the cutting away of thirty-six inches of the lacerated intestines. The operation is a most dangerous one under any circumstances, and in this case was rendered doubly so by the previous laceration made by the bullet and the shock incidental to it. It was, however, a denier record. Col. King, in his cell at the jail, received the news of his victim's death in the same cool manner that has characterized his bearing since the tragedy occurred.

FINGER TO NECK.

A Needle's Half Century Tour Through a Woman's Body.

MINNEAPOLIS, March 13.—Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, of this city, who is aged 70, when a young girl, ran a needle into the little finger of her left hand. The needle broke, leaving half its length in her finger. She never experienced any trouble therefrom until last night, when an obstruction was noticeable in her throat. After considerable exertion she succeeded in removing it, and it proved to be the broken needle which had been over a half a century passing from her little finger to the point of exit. It was black with rust.

Canada's Reciprocity Offer to the U. S.

OTTAWA, ONT., March 13.—Upon Minister of Customs Bowell will devolve the lion's share of preparing the data upon which the proposed reciprocity offer to the United States will be framed. Mr. Bowell said yesterday that he felt confident that when negotiations were opened Secretary Blaine would find that not only had the government's views with regard to reciprocity been grossly misrepresented by their opponents, but that Canada was willing to meet the United States in a fair and friendly way, and he had little doubt that when those entrusted with the negotiations on behalf of the two countries got down to work, dispassionately meeting each other half way, there would be a satisfactory solution of trade and other questions between Canada and the United States.

Rhode Island Democratic Convention.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 13.—The Democratic state convention yesterday unanimously renominated John W. Davis and W. T. C. Wardwell for governor and lieutenant governor respectively. The old Democratic state ticket was renominated throughout. E. U. McGuinness for secretary of state; John G. Perry, of South Kingstown, for general treasurer, and Zelba O. Slocum for attorney general. A resolution adopted reiterates approval of the St. Louis platform of 1888, demands free raw material for manufacturing industries and the free entry of the necessities of life. All the candidates nominated appeared and made speeches, after which the state central committee was elected.

Pritchard Defeats Burke in Nine Minutes.

LONDON, March 13.—Jack Burke and Ted Pritchard met in the ring at the rooms of the Albany club, and in nine minutes and seven seconds Burke was knocked out, while Pritchard was as fresh as when time was called for the first round. Although Pritchard was the favorite, it was expected that Burke would make a better showing. In the first and second rounds Burke got in some good blows, but they lacked steam. In the third round Burke was knocked down three times, and, failing to rise the last time within the limited ten seconds, was declared out. It was quite evident that Burke's fighting powers are on the wane. The fight was for $1,000.

Kansas Legislature in a Deadlock.

KANSAS CITY, MO., March 13.—The house and senate are in a tight deadlock. The senate added $114,000 to the miscellaneous appropriations and cut out $7,000 of the house had added to it. Among the items added by the senate were, $50,000 for the Kansas display at the world's fair and $6,000 due Governor Crawford as state agent at Washington. The house will either have to pass the bill as it is or see the appropriations for its pet investigations killed. Both bodies appointed conference committees and then adjourned.

ARCHBISHOP WILLIAMS.

BRILLIANT CELEBRATION IN HONOR OF THE VETERAN ARCHBISHOP.

Evidence of Sincere Attachment for the Champion of the Roman Church—The Presentation of Jubilee Gifts—Hundreds of Priests Participate—Most Magnificent Spectacle at Boston.

BOSTON, March 12.—The twenty-fifth anniversary of Archbishop Williams' consecration as bishop was brilliantly celebrated yesterday. Many bishops from other dioceses assisted. In everything that goes to make a magnificent spectacle the event exceeded any previous Catholic function in this city. The great Cathedral of the Holy Cross, which was the scene of the ceremonies, held by far the largest congregation that had ever assembled within its walls. Bishops DeGroenland, Healey, Bradley, McMahon, Harkin, O'Reilly, Conroy and McQuaid, with the vicars general of their respective dioceses and hundreds of priests, participated in the exercises, which comprised music by two great choirs, a brilliant processional, the celebration of pontifical high mass by the archbishop and many assistants and a sermon by Bishop Healey, of Portland, Me.

Magnificent Surroundings.

The high altar was resplendent with lights, which gleamed through an exquisite arrangement of flowers and shed a brilliant glow over the magnificent surroundings of the altar and sanctuary, the latter beautifully decorated with palms and a profusion of smilax. When the procession reached the altar the officiating clergy men took their places beside the archbishop, while the other bishops and clergy arranged themselves, as many as could be accommodated, within the sanctuary, the others to a large number, seating themselves before the high altar. The scene about the altar and sanctuary was an inspiring one, the rows of acolytes clad in white and purple, the cross and censor-bearers, the seminarians, the priests in their white surplices, the prelates wearing their purple robes, the officiating clergy in their gorgeous vestments and the archbishop in his pontifical robes, while the clouds of incense which permeated the atmosphere and the beautiful music added to the grandeur and solemnity of the occasion.

The Officers of the Mass

were: Celebrant, his grace, Most Rev. John J. Williams, archbishop; assistant priest, Rev. William Byrne, D. V. G.; deacons of honor, first, Very Rev. Mgr. P. Strain, second, Rev. Thomas S. Hayne; deacon of the mass, Rev. Leo P. Boland; master of ceremonies, Rev. James F. Talbot, D. D.; cross bearer, Rev. Henry Welsh. After the Gospel the sermon was preached by Rev. James A. Healy, D. D., bishop of Portland. At the conclusion of the services the archbishop attended a banquet given by the clergy of the arch-diocese, at which the visiting prelates were also present. The presentation of jubilee gifts to the archbishop followed. In the evening the Catholic union, of Boston, tendered the archbishop a reception at Boston College hall. The programme included addresses and music.

AN EPIDEMIC VISIBLE.

Another Visitation of Pneumonia and "Gr p" at Chicago.

CHICAGO, March 13.—The grip is on the increase, and there seems to be a fair probability that this city is about to have another visitation like that of last winter. The county hospital is filled with patients, and as pneumonia follows in many cases the mortality is great. Already the effect of the epidemic is visible in industries employing a large number of men. Half of the regular force of street car employees are laid up and the ranks of the police are thinned. Forty letter carriers are prostrated, together with fifty postal clerks, as well as Postmaster Sexton and assistant. At the custom house twelve clerks are on the "grip" sick list, and at the pension office eight have failed to report for the same cause.

NEVER TOO OLD TO LOVE.

A Groom of 69 Weds a Bride of 58 Summers in Braddock.

BRADDOCK, March 13.—A remarkable wedding occurred here yesterday, when John Sherwin and Mrs. Mary Beam took the vows that made them man and wife. The groom is 69 years of age, and is the grandfather of many children. He is the father of Burgess William Sherwin, an old and honored resident. The bride is 58 years of age.

The President Bags Thirteen Ducks. BALTIMORE, Md., March 13.—President Harrison yesterday bagged thirteen ducks, one of which was a canvas back weighing three and one-half pounds. It was the first and only canvas back shot at Bengies, Md., this season. Gen. Sewell and E. C. Knight together brought down twelve ducks. A heavy rain storm drove the party to the club house early in the afternoon, where they amused themselves at the billiard tables. Vice President Thompson, of Philadelphia, has returned home. The president will return to Washington on Saturday.

Working Day of Philadelphia Bricklayers. PHILADELPHIA, March 13.—The bricklayers and their employers have compromised the question of the length of the working day by agreeing that it shall be nine hours, at the old rate of pay, from April 4 to October 3, and from October 4 to April 3, eight hours, excepting Saturdays, when work is to stop at noon. There are about 3,000 bricklayers in this city, and what effect this shortening of hours will have on the wages of laborers and hod carriers who work with them is to be determined.

Reprieve Sent Very Ill.

COLUMBUS, Ind., March 13.—Representative Joseph F. Gent arrived in this city from Indianapolis in a bad condition yesterday. He was taken suddenly ill. His condition is very critical. He spent a very bad night. Physicians have given up all hope of his recovery. His family has been requested to come to him from Florida.

Philadelphia Liquor Dealers' New Tactics. PHILADELPHIA, March 13.—The Law and Order society of this city is paying particular attention to applicants for wholesale liquor licenses, in the belief that they are disguised seekers after retail licenses.

THE OHIO LEGISLATURE.

The Senate Passed Several Important Bills—The House Discusses the Garber Salary Bill.

COLUMBUS, O., March 13.—The senate passed a bill providing for the Australian system of voting. It will probably pass the house in a few days. There have been many amendments to the bill, but it still retains features of the Australian system providing for preparing secret ballot in booths. There were six votes against the bill.

The senate then passed Clapp's bill providing for the appropriation of $25,000 for the erection of an Ohio cottage at the Woman's Relief Corps home, in Lake county. The senate then resumed consideration of the elections bill. The house spent the entire day as a committee of the whole discussing the Garber salary bill. The first section relating to probate judges and fixing their compensation was taken up, and Mr. Dougherty, of Fayette, offered as a substitute to section 1, providing for a reduction of fees about 25 per cent. instead of a fixed salary, as provided in the Garber bill. The substitute was rejected. The Democrats voted against it and the Republicans for it. The committee then arose and reported it to the house and obtained permission to resume.

The house then passed the Springfield municipal reform bill. A resolution by Mr. Bense authorizing the governor to receipt for Ohio's share of the direct tax fund has been adopted by the house.

Senator Pattison introduced an important bill. It seeks to prevent an assessor from going into cahoots with the property owner. The bill provides that the assessor who fails to make correct returns or swears or affirms the person on listing his property shall be fined not less than $50 nor more than $100 and imprisoned for thirty days. Also the person who makes false returns shall be fined a sum not more than the amount withheld and be imprisoned not less than thirty days or more than one year.

Representative Gannmer's bill giving the state commission of labor power to remove appointees was taken up. The object of the bill is to provide a way to remove P. J. Elliott, of Columbus, from the labor agency, now under indictment for murder.

The Columbus Tragedy.

The Trial of the Elliotts May Come Up for the April Term.

COLUMBUS, O., March 13.—Prosecuting Attorney Huling stated yesterday that the prisoners indicted by the special grand jury called to investigate the Elliott-Osborn murder will be arraigned next Monday. He will try to finish the trials of all the lesser crimes at this term of court in order that the trials of the Elliotts may come up at the beginning of the April term of court. In some of the published accounts of the tragedy the statement was made that the accusations against Levering also implicated Claude Meeker, Governor Campbell's private secretary. This statement was incorrect, as the charges of immorality made by Elliott's paper against Levering did not include Mr. Meeker. The most serious charge that Elliott made against Meeker was that he had promised to appoint a certain lady to an official position and had not kept that promise.

SHE WAS ONE HUNDRED AND FOUR.

Death of the Oldest Woman in This Vicinity.

CINCINNATI, March 13.—At the St. Mary hospital Elizabeth Schulten, aged 104, died—not of old age, as might be supposed, but from the effects of a severe attack of asthma. Mrs. Schulten was born in Westphalia, Germany, on October 9, 1786, and entered St. Mary hospital December 17, 1887. She was very intelligent, and bright almost to the end. The deceased leaves a daughter, who lives on Main street.

Impeachment of an Ohio Judge.

COLUMBUS, O., March 13.—The impeachment trial of Judge L. S. Sherman, of Ashtabula county, is now before the house committee on judiciary. The action was brought by citizens of Ashtabula over an injunction issued by Judge Sherman that caused a railroad track to be torn up. John N. Stewart claimed that Judge Sherman had agreed to continue the case from Saturday till Monday, but violated the agreement, the track was torn up by order of Ashtabula authorities between Saturday and Monday.

California Legislature in Joint Session. SACRAMENTO, CAL., March 13.—An effort was made to secure signers for the Republican caucus yesterday, but the required number could not be secured and the legislature met in joint session to ballot for United States senator, with the Republicans still scattering their votes. The first ballot resulted: Estee, 31; DeYoung, 24; Pelton, 16; Blanchard, 12; Johnston, 4; Welmer, 1. The Democrats cast 27 votes for Coleman.

CONDENSED OHIO NEWS.

The trial of Richard King for murdering James King has been postponed at New Lisbon till the next term of court.

Edward Hall, of Washington C. H., died Monday at the ripe old age of 96 years. He lived under every president of the United States.

C. H. Andrews, of Youngstown, has entered suit against the Pittsburg, Toledo and Youngstown railroad to recover $41,945.01, with interest for five years on a book account.

Frank M. Gordon and Miss Mary Hartenstein, both of Allegheny, Pa., came to Youngstown, and were married by Justice Allen. The report that Girard furnace, at Youngstown, would be started in violation of the furnace owner's resolution is unfounded. Orders have been issued to have it relined.

HISSED FROM THE STAGE.

The Recent St. Petersburg Demonstration Against Miss Van Zandt.

Miss Marie Van Zandt, the American prima donna who was hissed off the stage at St. Petersburg not long ago, is the daughter of Mme. Van Zandt, who was a well-known figure in operatic circles here from ten to twenty years ago, and Sig. Blitz, the famous sleight-of-hand performer. Miss Van Zandt completed her musical studies ten years ago and was one of the most promising of the elder Lamperti's pupils. She has a voice of unusual purity and strength and had the prospect of a most successful stage career. Soon after her debut, however, something that occurred upon the stage of the Grand opera-house in Paris excited the hostility of the audience and she was remorsefully hissed. The incident, which she and her friends declared was the outgrowth of French prejudice against American singers, brought on a severe and protracted illness. Whatever was the occasion of the latter incident it is likely to seriously affect the professional future of a singer from whom a great deal has been expected on both sides of the water.

MISS MARIE VAN ZANDT.

SARDON'S THERMIDOR.

One of the Most Intensely Interesting Dramas Ever Written.

Sardon's "Thermidor," which caused a riot on its first presentation in Paris and which was finally prohibited by the government, is said to be an intensely interesting drama. It presents an incident in the life of a man who really existed, a clerk of the "committee of public safety." Labussiere, who succeeded in saving from the scaffold many actors of the theater now called La Comedie Francaise. That clerk was fond of literature and playwriting, and when under the reign of terror actors and actresses were threatened with death, being suspected of royalist sympathies, he managed to suppress the criminal indictments and even sometimes the death sentence itself, and thus to have the intended victims forgotten by their persecutors. Labussiere was an employee in the prisoners' bureau, and he had daily some twenty or thirty dockets to copy and remit to the proper commission. He used to withdraw some indictments from the terrible pile, and he thus saved the lives among others of the actors Darincoit, Fleury and Larive, and the actresses Coutat, Lange and Rancourt. No wonder, then, that the artists of the present Comedie Francaise should be enthusiastic over Sardon's play, which glorified the memory of Labussiere.

According to a writer in Figaro, who has just published interesting particulars about the play, based upon the first information which Sardon gave him twenty-five years ago and which have not been denied by the dramatist, the idea of "Thermidor" was conceived at that time. Sardon would have written the play then and given it to a theater if the imperial government, having heard of his intention, had not declared that no play referring to the revolutionary times would be allowed a performance. The drama has been written at last, and almost entirely according to the plan first intended by Sardon. It was to comprise eight tableaux, but two of them only have been preserved intact in the drama as it has been played. But the scenes and the personages have remained what they were originally. The historical epoch is that of the famous "Ninth of Thermidor," which witnessed the fall and execution of Robespierre, whose death is too often incorrectly represented as having been the signal for the end of the "Terreur." The plot mainly turns upon the efforts made by her lover to save a lady who declines in order to escape the scaffold to employ a pretext which she considers injurious to her honor.

THE MUSICAL WORLD.

M. Maurel will create the role of Falstaff in Verdi's new opera.

A new comic opera by Edward Solomon is announced for early production at the Savoy theater, London. It is based on an oriental subject. The Boston Ideals, after a disastrous season, stranded recently in Louisville, and the members of the company were left penniless. Their costumes were seized and sold at auction on a sheriff's attachment.

New operas announced to be produced at Italian opera houses during the carnival season were: "Lionel," by Samara, and "Concor," by Gomes, at the La Scala, Milan; "Roneisval," by Bertini, at the Municipale, Modena; "Cimbelino," by Van Westerhout, at the San Carlo, Naples; "Spartaco," by Platania, at the same house; "Fabis," at the Rossini, Venice, and "Dilora," by Scarno, at the Bellini, Naples.

A six weeks' season of the grand opera in English will be inaugurated May 24 at the Grand opera house, New York. "Lucia di Lammermoor," "Fra Diavolo," "Carmen," "Il Trovatore," "Martha" and "Faust" will be presented. The company will include Pauline Fallemand, Louise Natalie, Stella Tomkins, Fannie Myers, Stella Beaumont, Charles Bassett, Frank Baxter, Signora Tagliapietra and Montegriffo and George Edwards.

A Blessing to Humanity.

This is what N. H. Andrews, a prominent citizen of Springfield, O., says: "It affords me great pleasure to assure my friends that I have received both immediate and permanent relief of throat, bronchial and asthmatic trouble in the use of Dr. Acker's English Remedy. It is certainly a good honest medicine and a blessing to humanity." The above preparation we sell on a positive guarantee; it has given better satisfaction than any other remedy we have ever sold. J. M. Schuckers, and E. S. Craig druggist, Massillon, O.

Mr. James Lambert, of New Brunswick, Ill., says: "I was badly afflicted with rheumatism in the hips and legs, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It cured me in three days. I am all right to-day and would insist on everyone who is afflicted with that terrible disease to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm and get well at once." For sale by Morgenthaler & Heister.

If Your House is on Fire

You put water on the burning timbers, not the smoke. And if you have catarrh you should attack the disease in the blood, not in your nose. Remove the impure cause, and the local effect subsides. To do this, take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier, which radically and permanently cures catarrh. It also strengthens the nerves. Be sure to get only Hood's Sarsaparilla.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Light House.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the government lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, 4 years old. Last April she was taken down with measles, followed with a dreadful cough and turning into a fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain; she grew worse rapidly until she was a mere "handful of bones." Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a free trial bottle at Z. T. Baltzly's drug store.

Here it is, and it fills the bill much better than anything we could say: "It gives me the greatest pleasure to write you in regard to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. During the past winter I have sold more of it than any other kind, and have yet to find any one but what was benefited by taking it. I have never had any medicine in my store that gave such universal satisfaction." J. M. Roney, druggist, Genda Springs, Kan. 50 cent bottles for sale by Morgenthaler & Heister.
